Webexpenses

webexpenses
an ELMO company

From £4.50/active user/month.

Webexpenses is a power expense management system which integrates with your existing ERP and works on desktop or mobile app.

Staff can build expense claims in seconds, track and manage their expenses, and increase visibility with drag-and-drop reporting. Webexpenses' online transaction and reimbursement platform makes reimbursing expenses quick and easy, as the payments service handles the admin so you don't have to.

The system also includes invoice processing software, which automates processing and eliminates manual data entry. Purchase orders and invoices can be remotely managed to accelerate approvals and allow greater control over cash flow from anywhere.

Finally, an online transaction and reimbursement platform makes reimbursing employee expenses simple, quick, and easy. The payments service handles all of your business expense reimbursements for you - removing lengthy admin tasks from your AP team.

Expensify

14 day free trial.

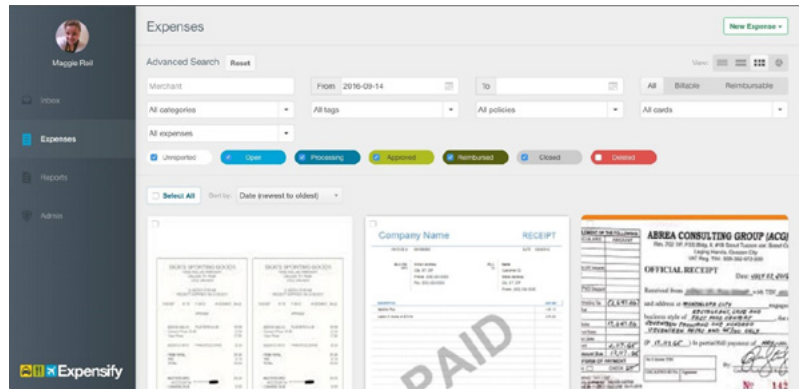

From £3.99/active user/month.

Expensify is the only solution recommended by the Association of International Certified Professional Accountants (AICPA) for receipt tracking, expense reporting, mileage tracking, and company card reconciliation.

With its trademarked SmartScan technology, Expensify has the highest OCR (optical character recognition) accuracy in the industry, allowing you to easily capture receipts on-the-go. Its corporate card reconciliation feature eliminates the need for accountants to reconcile company cards at the end of the month, and the rapid reimbursement feature lets you reimburse staff even more quickly.

Expensify also integrates directly with Xero cloud accounting software, cutting down hours of manual data entry.

Xero Expenses

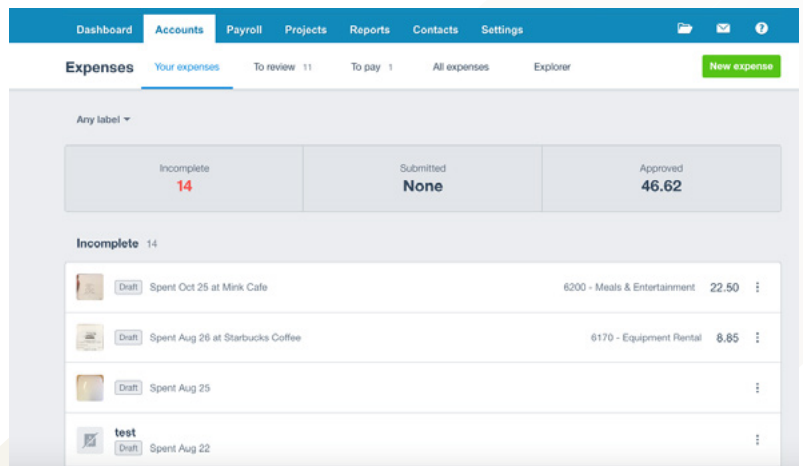

1 month free trial.

From £2.50/active user/month.

Xero Expenses works seamlessly with Xero accounting and has all the tools and insights small businesses need to reduce the hidden costs of processing expense claims and work more easily with employees.

Easy mobile apps help employees capture and submit expense claims on the spot, and there's no need to store paper receipts. This speeds up the reimbursement process and gives businesses complete, real-time visibility over their expenses to help them plan ahead and better manage cashflow.

The app itself automates the processing of the details of the receipt for ease of data entry.
